Brothers United in Leadership Development:

Creating Connections, Opportunities, and Access for Males of Color in K-12 Education

Purpose:

The Brothers United in Leadership Development (B.U.I.L.D.) Summit, presented by the North Carolina State University College of Education, is designed to expose 9th -11th grade high school male students, in particular male students of color, to the diverse role of leaders in a growing global society. Through the summit, participants will learn leadership skills, the variety of academic disciplines in the education field, and develop skills to enhance their career and college readiness. Participants will also have the opportunity to interact with current K-12 teachers, university faculty, community leaders, and current college student leaders, as well as increase their knowledge about the post-secondary education environment.

Event Details:

B.U.I.L.D. will take place on Saturday, April 16, 2016 within the North Carolina State University College of Education (Poe Hall). Registration will be held from 8:00am-8:30am and the event will conclude at 3:30pm. Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided to all participants and the event is free of cost. Participants are responsible for transportation to and from the event. Participants are encouraged to be accompanied by a chaperoned group, school, or community organization. All participants must submit a registration form and be notified of their registration status prior to attending the event.

Registration Instructions:

For students interested in attending the event, please complete the enclosed registration form and return to the address, fax number, or e-mail address found at the bottom of the registration form by March 1, 2016. There are 50 spaces available for participants to attend the event which are offered on a first-come, first-serve basis. The forms will be reviewed in the order in which they are received. Participants will be notified via e-mail of their registration status and given further event details during this time (i.e. campus map, detailed directions, etc.). Participants must be notified of their registration status prior to attending the April 16th event.

Questions:

For all inquiries, please feel free to contact Regina Gavin Williams via telephone at 919-513-4120 or via e-mail at rjgavin@ncsu.edu.
